Dear Valued Customer,

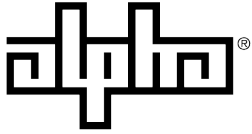

As part of our on-going efforts to deliver the most valued customer experience, we will be eliminating our Alpha® CSM DC-DC converter product series. The decision to move forward with this approach was based on several factors including very long lead-times, higher material cost, and low sales volume. The Alpha® CSM line of DC-DC converter products is typically used for remote line powering applications to convert ±190 VDC to -48 VDC.

EnerSys is initiating this end of line notification for the following six items effective November 1, 2023.

PRODUCTS TO BE DISCONTINUED
Part Number	Model/Description
030-831-20-040	Alpha® CSM46 10 Converter Module Shelf
